

Communication 4312 – Questions You Can Ask Anyone

Keep in mind: You can follow up each of these questions with why....

Who has been the most influential person in your life?

What about mentors, or teachers, who have also been important to you?

What has been the most significant turning point in your life?

What's been the best part of your education?

What do you wish you had learned in school you didn't or haven't?

What activities have been the most fun for you?

What other activities do you wish you had been involved in?

What's your favorite memory?

Are you close to brothers and sisters, and if so in what way?

Are you close to grandparents, and if so how?

Where have you lived in your life?

Where would you like to live?

How do you feel about Houston?

What do you think about the University of Houston?

Which of the Houston sports teams do you follow?

Who's your favorite local athlete?

Where have you traveled?

Where would you like to travel?

What's your favorite food?

What's your least favorite food?

What's the best book you ever read?

What's been your favorite TV show of all time?

What's been your most favorite movie?

What kind of music do you like?

What's the last concert you went to?

Who would you like to hear, dead or alive, in concert?

Who's your all-time favorite musician?

What three people dead or alive would you like to have dinner with?

Who's your favorite political figure in history and why?

Who's your favorite political figure now?

What do you hope to be doing in five years?

What's your ultimate goal in life?

If you could be anything you want to be in life, what would that be?

What would you do if you won the lottery?

How would you evaluate these questions?

How do you feel about answering these questions?

What questions haven't I asked of you that I should have?

If you could ask any one thing of me, what would it be?